Improvement Meeting.
The executive committee of the Weymouth Improvement Association met at the residence of Dr. Wm. H. Sawyer last evening on behalf of their arrangements for the annual meeting, to be held in Chapman's hall, Wednesday evening, April 13, and to obtain a talented speaker for the occasion. Residents of the village who are not members of the Association are invited to attend the annual meeting.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Selectmen in relation to grading the sidewalk in front of the school-houses on Broad street before planting trees there. A committee was appointed to consider the subject of introducing manufacturers to locate new business in the village, and another in reference to the lighting of Front street above Garfield square.

The committee on entertainments reported on the recent entertainment and the association tendered a vote of thanks for their valuable service.

The matter of re-selection of the flag-pole which was removed from Washington square was discussed, and a majority deemed it advisable to dispose of the same as the expense of erection and maintenance would be large, but no action was taken on the question.

Dissision and Subtraction.
The contest in the House of Representatives over the division of Weymouth came to a termination last week by a vote in favor of dividing the town. The question was one of much interest, the summer residents who have built costly residences near the seashore being determined to set up a town for themselves, whereby it is said that they would secure a rate of assessed valuation with the other portion would increase the rate to a much larger amount. Money power was apparently the lever which was successfully used, but we notice that our Representatives, Col. B. S. Lovell and Mr. Quincy, voted in opposition to the division, considering it an unjust procedure. As the new G. A. R. Post there is to be named "Col. B. S. Lovell Post," it may be thought that this move was a bid for the Col's vote, but he didn't "tumble to it."

Band Concert.

The forty-third annual concert and ball of the Weymouth Band, which takes place at Reynolds Hall next Thursday Evening, bids fair to exceed any that they have ever given before. The dramatic company, who will present the comedy drama "The Stolen Will," have been in constant rehearsal for some time past, so there can be no doubt of its being well staged. The principal parts will be taken by C. W. L. Hayward, D. C. Canterbury, W. M. Tirrell, A. M. Hawes, George Bearce, Charlie Randall, Ball Randolph, E. Merchant, Henry C. Loring, F. C. Seward, Mrs. Sidney Newell, Misses Alice Raymond, Grace Mitchell, Edith Sloan and Jennie Randall. Between the acts there will be selections by F. H. Frey, the popular humorist, and by the Band, R. E. Raymond conductor. W. E. Bateshader. At the close of the entertainment the floor will be cleared for dancing to the music of Tirrell's Orchestra. Henry Kelley prompter, the door to be in charge of B. S. Lowell, H. F. Bates, E. G. Cutler, C. J. Scott, W. H. Healey, Fred Drew, L. Loring, H. K. Cushing, Chas. Magoun, W. L. Peale, P. Lewis, and A. B. Grover. Tickets for dancing 25 cents. We are informed by the committee that there are a few more seats left, to be had of members of the band.

Good Work.

The widening of the railroad bridges between East Weymouth and Braintree having been completed, the work of laying the double track will be rapidly pushed forward, and it will probably be ready for use when the summer time table goes into effect. The stone work of the bridges is unusually massive, and in the great security thus afforded by the improved construction, the railroad management have reinforced the adage "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," by providing pounds of prevention.

Starting Bonus.

One hundred in the Public Library was in circulation today, arising from the fact that a resident entered the library and took the life of Shakespeare. It's April 1st, you know.

FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 1887.

Post Day Service.

The Governor's Proclamation for a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer was responded to by holding religious services at the Union church yesterday, at 10:45 a.m., the pastor and the other churches assisting in the exercises, which comprised responsive scripture reading of the psalms, Scripture lessons from St. Matthew's Gospel, invocations, singing by the choir and congregation, and two solos beautifully rendered by Mr. Nath'l F. Thayer, Rev. E. B. Eaton, pastor of the Universalist church, delivered an address applicable to the day and filled with so much of wise counsel and admonition concerning public and social duties and requirements that we devote a liberal amount of space to an abstract of his discourse.

Mr. Thayer's remarks were based upon the passage from Isaiah viii, 1: "not this is the fast that I have chosen?" to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free; and they related to the exercise of assembling, in obedience to the Governor's proclamation, he said that the custom of fasting is old as human history; but the Fast of Lent, in its strict observance, has been introduced by the overseers of our honored Virgin fathers, so as they departed from the old country set apart a day which they spent in solemn humiliation and prayer, and were given a more ample time for the exercise of their penitential duties than the week before.

Easter services at the Union church of Weymouth and Braintree will be conducted in the morning by the Rev. Mr. Miter, of Andover, and the choir will render appropriate Easter music.

In the evening there will be the usual Sabbath school Easter concert.

An elaborate Easter exercise, consisting of music and responses, will be given under the direction of John F. Dwight, Esq.

At the Baptist church the Easter festival will be observed with appropriate discourse by the pastor and in the evening. Easter service will be given in the vestry by the Sunday school, under the direction of Mrs. S. J. Axtell, solo to be given by Mrs. Eva Baker, also singing by a quartette.

Easter will be observed in the Universalist church next Sunday morning, when the pastor will preach on "Christ the World's Hope of Glory", and special music will be rendered by the choir, including organ voluntary, March in G. Smart; anthem, Praise the Lord, Moses; anthems, Thank you, God; Danks; solo by Mr. T. P. Parry, also congratulatory. On April 10th, there will be a service with sermon and Holy Communion at 10:30 a.m., and Children's Easter service at 3:30 p.m., with singing of carols and address by the rector.

At the service in the morning, the subject of Rev. Mr. Hyde's sermon will be "The Resurrection of Christ," and the text is St. Matthew xxviii, 6—"He is not here; for he is risen, as he said; come see the place where the Lord lay." The music for this service will be as follows: Christ our Passover, Millard; Venite, Dupuis; Be Deum, Ives; Hail, Dear Deus, Thomas; Rejoice and Exult, Dos Resurect, Hyndman; Praise, Mund; Hymn; Gloria in Excelsis, Buck.

The Annual Fair.

Given by the ladies of the Union church has been in progress in the lecture room of the church this week, commenced Monday, and this far has been quite a unique success, an unusual display attracting the visitors, it being safe to say that nothing of the kind in the way of fair has ever before been attempted in Weymouth or Braintree. The last fair was held last Friday evening under the auspices of the Universalist Society, the committee being Rev. E. Smith, D. J. Pease, E. C. Porter, Geo. E. Porter, Z. M. Allen, John E. Hunt, F. H. Mason and C. A. Carpenter. A large company was present.

The new bridges on the South Shore line between Braintree and Weymouth were tested Sunday by a heavy locomotive and the deflection of the longest span was only one-eighth of an inch, showing the great solidity of the structures.

Mr. Lorenzo White, who has been employed at the A. W. Clapp factory for 43 years, has retired and taken a position at Arnold's factory, North Attleborough, after a full life well spent, and having no further use for the tools and invention displayed, as well as for the labor expended in the preparations.

The trains commence their summer term Monday.

Would it not be a good idea for the scholars of the public schools to observe Arbor Day by planting trees?

The trains commence to use the new railroad track between Weymouth and East Braintree Monday.

An Ode of Praise took place at the Universalist church last Friday evening under the auspices of the Universalist Society, the committee being Rev. E. Smith, D. J. Pease, E. C. Porter, Geo. E. Porter, Z. M. Allen, John E. Hunt, F. H. Mason and C. A. Carpenter. A large company was present.

The severe storm which commenced early Saturday morning was the hardest that we had had this winter, some 11 inches of snow falling, which drifted high and almost instant hasted to become rock; one of the many evils fastened upon us by the late war being the alarming development of that species of snowdrifts which have caused the destruction of entire families, men, women and children. Many business men who were slowly but surely gaining a competence by honest legitimate business, were caught in the whirlwind of speculation and righteously condemned as speculators and money-lenders, while others, in a majority of instances to be engrossed in the master of financial ruin, while many young men, unwilling to begin what their fathers began, to accumulate vast fortunes, and thereby estimate his weaknesses and dangers. The evils which have afflicted human society have been many and various, and may be substantially estimated as follows: Greed of dominion leads to injuries with all its attendant woes; greed of power leads to slavery, of rank to aristocracy, of wealth to those who hold undivided power. That certain emigrations in the direction of the Americas were based upon the principles of justice and right, and upon the exhortations of their own leaders, as well as upon the example of their parents, is a fact which cannot be denied.

Willie T. Reed's horse, attached to a meat cart, stepped into a cavity in the service trench leading to Mr. Reed's house, on Pleasant Street, North Attleborough, and was dashed to pieces.

Fast day, April 1st, was observed by the Universalist church, the members of which gathered in the hall of the church, and the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hyde, who gave a short discourse on the importance of the day.

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1887.

NOTES.

It was well said by one of our resident clergymen, in a recent discourse, that the Protestant reformers, in their movement for the淳化 of the church, must have remembered some of the festival customs of that faith, even Christmas and Easter being looked upon with distrust by some sects, and trifled with neglect. But there has been a reaction from these iconoclastic views, and now all church organizations show a deep interest in these remembrances of the Great Redeemer's earthly life and resurrection, and the coming of these prominent Christian festival occasions awakens an interesting study of the old and the young which will never again be suffered to lapse. Odors of fragrant and spicy sweets, in which the voices of childhood have a pleasing part, and the "old, old story" repeated from the pulpit by the pastor and dwelt on the tongues of the little ones in their Sunday school exercises, united in making the observance of Easter day one of great delight to our residents, last Sunday.

The service at Trinity church was especially impressive and beautiful, the liturgy of the Episcopal church adding force and beauty to the simple story of our Saviour's resurrection triumph, while the lively and flowing strains of the organ and choir were being profusely interspersed, a sermon in itself. The choir was reinforced by the service of Messrs. Allen, Braintree, in tenor and bass solos and choruses, and the music was of a high order. Rev. Mr. Hyde, the rector, discoursed appropriately on the theme of the day, and the Easter offering of the worshippers was generous.

At the Union church the display of floral beauty was very striking, and the music was of a fine character, the sermon by Rev. M. C. Cutler, of Brookline, also being in keeping with the festive exercises. The organist was enabled by his unusually gathered to listen to the Easter concert services by the children of the Sunday school, under the direction of Prof. Dwight, which were very interesting and pleasant.

At the Universalist church the pastor, Rev. B. F. Eaton, gave a discourse especially adapted to the Easter time, and the choir gave a programme of choice music. As there is to be a Sunday school gathering there next Sunday evening, with address by Hon. John D. Long, there were exercises by the children in the evenings.

The pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. S. J. Axtell provided a discourse suited to the day, the choir rendering selections of Easter music. In the evening the children gathered in the vestry and under the direction of the pastor's wife, gave an excellent and lengthy programme of Easter exercises of singing and recitations, solo also being rendered by Mrs. Eva Baker. The service was filled by an attentive and gratified assembly.

Teachers Meeting.

At the teachers' meeting held in the Society room, the principal topics of discussion were Geography and History. An exercise in the former was conducted by Miss Jennie F. Halloway, of the Thomas school, with a class of six pupils, viz., Robert Flynn, Charles II, Ewell, Eva P. Bates, Clara L. Chandler, Annie C. Brady and Nellie E. Brady. The object of this exercise was to show how pupils can take pictures and talk Geography from them. These pictures can be taken from any books or papers, if they illustrate Geography in any way. The second exercise, conducted by Mr. Emerson, master of the Bates school, with a class of eight pupils, viz., Ruth W. Towner, Helen Loun, Grace Joy, Alice Long, Mary Flynn, Mary Churchill, Ernest Hollis and George Burrell. This exercise was given to show how pupils may learn to talk History by reading various books on History and Geography, and the telling in their own words, mostly, what they have read. Both of these exercises were intended to show that Geography and History may be so taught as to develop in pupils, to an indefinite degree, the power of expressing their ideas. A lively and interesting discussion followed.

Mosaic.

A class of instruction for the 25th Masonic district was held at Masonic hall, East Weymouth, last Friday, under the supervision of Wm. Jas. M. Gleason, Grand Lecturer. The work was commenced at 10 a.m., the First being worked by Corner Stone Lodge of Duxbury, lecture by Delta Lodge of Scituate; Second by Delta Lodge of Weymouth, lecture by Phoenix Lodge of Hanover. This occupied the attention of the brethren until noon, when the Masonic Social Fair, the first of its kind ever held in Weymouth, was opened.

The Baptist society are considering the subject of a change of the time of their Sunday service to the morning hour.

Mr. Jas. Casey, who for two weeks past has been ill with pneumonia, is rapidly improving.

The Universalist Ladies Social Circle held their annual fair the first week in May, and friends are invited to contribute.

"The Wedding Garment" will be the subject of Rev. Mr. Eaton's sermon in the Universalist church, next Sunday morning.

The public services connected with the anniversary of the Sunday school will be held at 7.30 o'clock in the evening, and the meetings will be held in the day school and also by the church choir.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies Cemetery Committee at the residence of Mrs. Oscar Alen, East Braintree, next Wednesday evening.

A fair audience gathered at Reynolds' home last evening to witness the Little Lucy Liner Company in "44, which was one of the best entertainment's given this season. All the girls, who were dressed in their usual superman manner, the company will give the same play this evening and tomorrow evening the audience will be given a benefit, with two attractive plays.

The supper given in the lecture room of the Union church last Friday evening, also at the expense of the Ladies Social Fair, was large. The hosts, led by J. H. Flint, Esq., were responded to by the many guests, and the entertainment was more than equal to the occasion.

The painters are busy finishing up the exterior of the building. The new block and addition will have 10 ft. beam, and will have a 35 ft. piling, with all modern improvements.

The firm will also furnish the machinery for a 55 ft. length and 44 ft. beam, to be run on Moosehead Lake for fishing and pleasure parties.

Another street light has been placed in front of the house occupied by Surveyor Ford.

Rev. John Lane has received a call to become the pastor of the Baptist church in Shrewsbury, and will probably accept the same.

Mr. Asaph Parker is preparing to build another dwelling-house on his lot, corner of Washington and Hunt streets.

Mr. Albert Arnold, returned from Riverside, Cal., last Friday.

Tuesday last, Underwriter Samuel Curtis conveyed the body of Mr. Hall, who died at Lovell's Corner last Saturday, to the Beechwood Cemetery.

Mr. Parker has been confined to the house for the past ten days with a severe cold.

We are pleased to see the smiling face of B. F. Stoddard once more upon the streets, after being confined to the hospital.

Observance of the Lord's Day.

When the Legislative bill to further regulate the observance of the Lord's Day was introduced for consideration, Hon. E. Morse addressed the Senate, as follows:

Mr. President. If the amendments to this bill which I have offered are adopted, the law will remain as it now is except the Lord's Day will begin at 12 o'clock noon, Saturday evening, and continue until all the hours of the Sabbath day, and its entire duration.

There is no man in the world who would not be grieved if the Sabbath day were to be violated.

The Emperor Constantine, A.D. 324, in his Edict of Milan, gave the Christians the Sabbath day, and the first Sunday, as a day of rest.

In the year 337, in the reign of the Emperor Gratian, he issued an edict, commanding that the Sabbath day should be observed.

Emperor Theodosius, in the year 380, issued an edict, commanding that the Sabbath day should be observed.

Emperor Justinian, in the year 533, issued an edict, commanding that the Sabbath day should be observed.

Emperor Heraclius, in the year 630, issued an edict, commanding that the Sabbath day should be observed.

Emperor Maurice, in the year 640, issued an edict, commanding that the Sabbath day should be observed.

Emperor Justin II, in the year 705, issued an edict, commanding that the Sabbath day should be observed.

Emperor Heraclius, in the year 705, issued an edict, commanding that the Sabbath day should be observed.

Letter from Riverside.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., April 1st, 1857.

Mr. Editor:—Our paper is surely having its quiet time of business of all the year, with the exception of vegetation coming on like magic. About fifty men find employment picking oranges for the different packing houses in the valley.
About forty men are employed in packing oranges, and more in unloading them. There are two houses in the valley at Arlington that drive an active business. Coleman employs more hands than any other, and many fruit ranchers both pick and pack their own fruit.
The oranges are very fragrant and delicious.

Death.

Mr. Charles G. Jackson, of Quincy, died Monday night, after a long and painful illness, at the age of 63 years, the immediate cause of his death being Bright's disease. He was born at Endfield, England, in 1821, and was the youngest of three sons of Samuel and Mary Jackson, who married many years ago. They had four daughters and two sons, all of whom have passed away, two daughters, Mrs. Maria H. Hunt, of Endfield, and Mrs. F. Hunt, who lives at home. Mr. Jackson's widow also survives him, they are present residing at Quincy, where he has resided for many years. He was born in Weymouth, where he was in the dry goods business for four years under the firm name of Jackson & Son. In 1846 he removed to Quincy, where he followed the same occupation, and remained there for many years; could not interest myself without help. Now I am free from all my debts, and have a comfortable home. I owe my thanks to Sulphur Bitters, for saving my life. At one time he was a member of St. John's Lodge, of Boston, St. Paul's R. C. Chapter and Boston Lodge, A. F. & A. M. His remains were taken to Endfield, N. H., Thursday, and interred in the family lot at that place.
